

THE CAPTAIN'S COURTYARD - This peaceful patio, resplendent with colorful floral figure and paradise, is a very popular gathering-place during the summer months. The bronze statue of Captain Fred Paust, son-in-law of one of the brewery founders, stands at the outside of the cloister walk. This statue honors one of the "great names" in Milwaukee's world-famous brewing industry.

HERE

X-28-58 at 8th A.M. Dear

Joshua: Mrs Link has just informed me that the boys in Stockholm have announced you $\frac{1}{3}$ of the Nobel Award. First my hearty congratulations. I am not surprised - but I am mighty pleased - and I am since the last update for you. Cordially etc Karl Paul Link

Professor Joshua Hederberg
[Prix Nobel X-27-1958]

Genetics Department

(College of Agri. culture)

The University of Wisconsin

Madison 6

Wisconsin